The Julian calendar, proposed by Julius Caesar in 46 BCE (708 AUC), was a reform of the Roman calendar. It took effect on 1 January 45 BCE (AUC 709), by edict. It was the predominant calendar in the Roman world, most of Europe, and in European settlements in the Americas and elsewhere, until it was refined and gradually replaced by the Gregorian calendar, promulgated in 1582 by Pope Gregory XIII. The Julian calendar gains against the mean tropical year at the rate of one day in 128 years. For the Gregorian the figure is one day in 3,030 years. The difference in the average length of the year between Julian (365.25 days) and Gregorian (365.2425 days) is 0.002%.

Year 43 BCE was either a common year starting on Sunday, Monday or Tuesday or a leap year starting on Sunday or Monday (link will display the full calendar) of the Julian calendar (the sources differ, see leap year error for further information) and a common year starting on Monday of the Proleptic Julian calendar. At the time, it was known as the Year of the Consulship of Pansa and Hirtius (or, less frequently, year 711 Ab urbe condita). The denomination 43 BC for this year has been used since the early medieval period, when the Anno Domini calendar era became the prevalent method in Europe for naming years.

This statement made in support of the "yes" vote for same sex marriage does not constitute hate speech but factually and artfully conveys media reports, historical realities and reasoned argument.

I have some twenty plus years of informal research within the esoteric field of METEMPIRICAL (ie. the branch of philosophy that deals with things existing beyond the realm of experience) PHILOSOPHY as the perennialist school of thought and the METAPHYSICAL (ie. of things transcending what is physical or natural and the temporal reality) as Torah Kabbalist THEOLOGY and which is applicable to both knowledge pragmatics and Artificial Intelligence.

It is you who are being entirely disparaging and if you have any reasonable explanation I would like to hear it.

I would have you know that even though you as Freemasons may use it to compute eclipses in deference to the Jewish / Solomon's Temple 364 day / year solar / lunar cycle of 2184 days as 6 x 364 [Luke 1:1-25] as THE MAJOR PREMISE {YANG/FATHER/HEAVEN/MALE/FORM - Formula of Universal Law}, which contains the law of that will in relation to the DIVINE MIND / GODHEAD only ceased under Roman Imperial besiegement of Jerusalem by Roman Emperor Titus. That this vestige of Roman Empire Governance as the Julian calendar was changed by British Act of Parliament in 1751 / 1752 as being subsequent to the Gregorian calendar reforms of 1582 CE.

The Siege of Jerusalem in the year 70 was the decisive event of the First Jewish–Roman War. The Roman army, led by the future Emperor Titus, with Tiberius Julius Alexander as his second-in-command, besieged and conquered the city of Jerusalem, which had been controlled by Judean rebel factions since 66.
The siege ended on 30 August with the sacking of the city and the destruction of its Second Temple to which the Arch of Titus, celebrating the Roman sack of Jerusalem and the Temple, still stands in Rome to this day.

Just as a Gregorian date is a date in the Gregorian Calendar, a Julian date is a date in the Julian Calendar. Astronomers sometimes use the term 'Julian date' in another sense, according to which it is related to what is called a 'Julian day number'. Such a use of the term 'Julian date' makes it ambiguous, but the meaning is usually clear from the context. In this article the notion of the Julian day number will be explained, along with various meanings of the term Julian date.

According to the system of numbering days called Julian day numbers, used by astronomers and calendrists (those who study calendars, unfortunately not for a living), the temporal sequence of days is mapped onto the sequence of integers, -2, -1, 0, 1, 2, 3, etc. This makes it easy to determine the number of days between two dates (just subtract one Julian day number from the other).

For example, a solar eclipse was seen at Nineveh on June 15, 763 B.C. (Julian Calendar), according to the Assyrian chronicles in the British Museum, and a lunar eclipse occurred there on the night of April 14-15, 425 B.C. (Julian Calendar). (The Lunar Calendars and Eclipse Finder program tells us that these eclipses occurred at approximately 10:32 a.m. and 2:27 a.m. respectively.) The Julian day numbers corresponding to these dates are 1,442,902 and 1,566,296 respectively. This makes it easy to calculate that the lunar eclipse occurred 123,394 days after the solar eclipse.

That the MINOR PREMISE {YIN/MOTHER/EARTH/FEMALE/MATTER - Formula of Humanity}, which contains the command to behave in accordance with the law, that is, the principle of subsumption under the law: \(x \times 49 = 107,016\) days as 6J or 294 x 364 days or 365.2425 x 293 years - Vernal Equinox on Wednesday of 20 March 1996 / New Moon on Thursday of 21 March = 1 Nisan 5756 (Note: that a New Moon is prerequisite to any solar eclipse);

Generally speaking, an integer date is any system of assigning a one-to-one correspondence between the usual sequence of days (and nights) and the integers. Such systems differ only in the day chosen to correspond to day 0 or day 1. For example, in some applications NASA uses the Truncated Julian Date, which is the number of days since 1968-05-24 (at which time the Apollo missions to the Moon were underway).

THE CONCLUSION {ZHUN/SON/SEA/ENUMERATE/OFFSPRING - Formula of Autonomy}, which contains the verdict (sentence), what is laid down as right in the case at hand: ... 6,000 as 122J3W1D + 9(9²+1)/2 as #369 with Septet #41 centric on 13-17 September 2001 / 18 September = 1 Tishri 5762." NORTH Korean leader Kim Jong-un said his country is nearing its goal of 'equilibrium' in military force with the United States, as the United Nations Security Council strongly condemned the North's 'highly provocative' ballistic missile launch over Japan on Friday.

The North's official Korean Central News Agency carried Kim's comments on Saturday — a day after US and South Korean militaries detected the missile launch from the North Korean capital of Pyongyang.

It travelled 3700 kilometres as it passed over the Japanese island of Hokkaido before landing in the northern Pacific Ocean. It was the country's longest-ever test flight of a ballistic missile.

The North has confirmed the missile as an intermediate range Hwasong-12, the same model launched over Japan on 29 August."

the branch of philosophy that deals with things existing beyond the realm of experience) philosophy as the perennialist school of thought and the metaphysical (i.e., things transcending what is physical or natural and the temporal reality) as Torah Kabbalist theology to define the meta-descriptor prototypes of Nature as cosmological elementals comprising the MATERIA PRIMA and the attribution of AUTONOMY OF WILL as being implied and intrinsic to the SOVEREIGN PRINCIPLES expressed by Queen Victoria within her gracious gift as the instrumentation known as the LETTERS PATENT to FEDERATION of the AUSTRALIAN COMMONWEALTH of 1901 as being defined by a mathematical theoretical noumenon as an intellectual property which is then the substantial basis for a declaration of the GLBTI COMMUNITY’S HUMAN RIGHT which is unambiguously and clearly sustained by a dual universal statement as an undiminished tangibility of faith being a robust belief (rather than non-belief or disbelief), in being firstly encapsulated by the knowledge of a HOMOIOS rather than HETEROS THEORY OF NUMBER consideration, and then secondarily as re-enforced by a universal statement which is a singularity compliant with a DIVINE FIAT and potentiality as the cosmological language consideration of the chronological circumscribing given to the 10 commandments as then defining human consciousness by a cosmological anthropic principle.

Captain James Cook wrote in a journal on 22 August 1770 of his discovery as the east coast of Australia: "[Since I] may land no more upon this eastern coast of New Holland, and on the western side I can make no new discovery the honour of which belongs to the Dutch navigators and as such they may lay claim to it as their property."

Earlier I raised the notion that for Hegel (27/8/1770 to 14/11/1831 CE) world history is represented by the manner in which the Spirit develops gradually into its purest form, ultimately recognizing its own essential freedom. To Hegel, 'world history is thus the unfolding of Spirit in time, as nature is the unfolding of the Idea in space.' The dialectical process thus virtually defines the meaning of history for Hegel: "the idea of freedom as the absolute and final aim; secondly, the means for realizing it, i.e. the subjective side of knowledge and will, with its life, movement, and activity. We then recognized the State as the moral Whole and the Reality of Freedom, and consequently as the objective of these two elements. For although we make this distinction into two aspects for our consideration, it must be remarked that they are intimately connected; and that their connection is involved in the idea of each when examined separately. We have, on the one hand, recognized the Idea in the definite form of Freedom conscious of and willing itself—having itself alone as its object: involving at the same time, the pure and simple Idea of Reason, and likewise, that which we have called subject—self-consciousness—Spirit actually existing in the World.

If, on the other hand, we consider Subjectivity, we find that subjective knowledge and will is Thought. But by the very act of thoughtful cognition and volition, I will the universal object—the substance of absolute Reason. We observe, therefore, an essential union between the objective side—the Idea—and the subjective side—the personality that conceives and wills it—The objective existence of this union is the State, which is therefore the basis and centre of the other concrete elements of the life of the people—Art, of Law, of Morals, of Religion, of Science. All the activity of Spirit has only this object—the becoming conscious of this union, i.e. of its own Freedom. Among the forms of this conscious union 'Religion' occupies the highest position. In it, Spirit—rising above the limits of temporal and secular existence—becomes conscious of the Absolute Spirit, and in this consciousness of the self-existent Being, renounces individual interest; it lays this aside in Devotion—a state of mind in which it refuses to occupy itself any longer with the limited and particular."

There exists upon this point, a religious/political contention as dichotomy over a Divine mandate for good governance as I have conveyed of the usurping Sovereign/Marriage dynamic associated with the Pythagorean HETEROS THEORY OF NUMBER, which is in part due to the historical reality. That the Vatican City as an entity of Religious/Political State was only re-established in 1929 CE by Benito Mussolini under the Lateran Pact. At the time of the enactment of our Australian Constitution of 1901, it ought to be remembered that the Roman Catholic Church was then the enemy of democracies. The religious/political state is an anathema to and a denier of human, religious and Constitutional Rights established upon a HOMOIOS THEORY OF NUMBER, which bestow autonomous sovereignty and individual accountability in recognition of an AUTONOMY OF WILL:

"[A folly] which we meet with in our time, is that of pretending to invent and carry out political Constitutions independently of religion. The Catholic confession, although sharing the Christian name with the Protestant, does not concede to the State an inherent Justice and Morality—a concession which in the Protestant principle is fundamental. ([v])

An example of the Australian Government pretending, as Hegel suggests "to invent and carry out political Constitutions independently of religion" is represented in the dichotomy that the Church of England Act No. 45/1854 was an Act to enable the Bishops, Clergy and Laity of the United Church of England and Ireland in Victoria to provide for the regulation of the affairs of the said Church.

This tearing away of the political morality of the Constitution from its natural connection, is necessary to the genius of that religion, inasmuch as it does not recognize Justice and Morality as independent and substantial—But thus excluded from intrinsic worth, torn away from their last refuge, the sanctuary of conscience, the calm retreat where religion has its abode, the principles and institutions of political legislation ARE DESTITUTE OF A REAL CENTRE, TO THE SAME DEGREE AS THEY ARE COMPELLED TO REMAIN ABSTRACT AND INDEFINITE." [Georg Hegel (1770-1841 CE), 'Introduction – The Philosophy of History', p 52]

VOX IN EXCELSO was the name of a Papal Bull issued by Pope Clement V in 1312. The directives given within the Bull were to formally dissolve the Order of the Knights Templar, effectively removing Papal support for them and revoking the mandates given to them by previous popes in the 12th and 13th centuries.

'In view of the suspicion, infamy, loud insinuations and other things which have been brought against the other... and also the secret and clandestine reception of the brother of this Order; in view, moreover, of the serious scandal which has arisen from these things, which it did not seem could be stopped while the Order remained in being, and the danger to faith and souls, and the many horrible things which have been done by the very many of the brothers of this Order, who have lapsed into the sin of wicked apostasy, the crime of detestable idolatry, and the execrable outrage of the Sodomites . . . it is not without bitterness and sadness of heart that we abolish the aforesaid Order of the Temple, and its constitution, habit and name, by an irrevocable and perpetually valid decree; and we subject it to perpetual prohibition with the approval of the Holy Council, strictly forbidding anyone to presume to enter the said Order in the future, or to receive or wear its habit, or to act as a Templar.' [https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Vox_in_excelso]

The Poor Fellow-Soldiers of Christ and of the Temple of Solomon (Latin: Pauperes commilitones Christi Templique Salomonici), also known as the Order of Solomon's Temple, the Knights Templar, or simply as Templars, was a Catholic military order recognised in 1139 by papal bull Omne Datum Optimum (Latin for "Every perfect gift", a quotation from the Epistle of James 1:17) of the Holy See. The Order was founded in 1119 and active from about 1129 to 1312. [https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Knights_Templar]

"For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Do not err, my beloved brethren.

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.
Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man’s religion is vain.

Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." [James 1:11-27 (KJV)]

The papal bull Omne Datum Optimum issued by Pope Innocent II in 1139 that initially endorsed the Order of the Poor Knights of Christ and of the Temple of Solomon (Knights Templar), in which the Templar Rule was officially approved, and papal protection given. Additionally, Omne Datum Optimum promised all spoils from Muslim conquest to the Order, and made the Order exempt from tithes and taxes:

"As for the things that you will receive from the spoils, you can confidently put them to your own use, and we prohibit that you be coerced against your will to give anyone a portion of these."

Although Omne Datum Optimum was an unusual bull in and of itself, it was followed by Pope Celestine II's Milites Templi in 1144 and Pope Eugene III's Militia Dei in 1145, which together gave the Templars an extraordinary range of rights and privileges. Among other things, the Order was permitted to build its own churches, bury their dead on those church grounds and collect taxes on Templar properties once a year. The unique cemeteries constructed by the Templars proved to be extremely controversial. [https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Omne_Datum_Optimum]

The ANTHROPIC [COSMOLOGICAL] PRINCIPLE is a philosophical consideration that observations of the Universe must be compatible with the conscious and sapient life that observes it. Some proponents of the anthropic principle reason that it explains why this universe has the age and the fundamental physical constants necessary to accommodate conscious life. As a result, they believe it is unremarkable that this universe has fundamental constants that happen to fall within the narrow range thought to be compatible with life.

The strong anthropic principle (SAP) as explained by John D. Barrow and Frank Tipler states that this is all the case because the universe is in some sense compelled to eventually have conscious and sapient life emerge within it. Some critics of the SAP argue in favour of a weak anthropic principle (WAP) similar to the one defined by Brandon Carter, which states that the universe's ostensible fine tuning is the result of selection bias (specifically survivor bias): ie. only in a universe capable of eventually supporting life will there be living beings capable of observing and reflecting upon fine tuning.

Most often such arguments draw upon some notion of the multiverse for there to be a statistical population of universes to select from and from which selection bias (our observance of only this universe, compatible with our life) could occur.

And to do this I want to modify the chat function () which currently adds a prototype stub into the GIZMO array but isn't presently used.

For example: "THIS IS A TEST" produces the meta descriptor stub:

But I want to expand this proof of concept to include each of the INNER / OUTER @memeBrain sub-categories for each the cascading hierarchies involved within the pairing process as being the TETRAD:

Rather than the example presently given below by the HTTP link which is:

And our additional "#932" = "THIS IS A TEST"

And against these 'HOT ZONES' I want to add our statutory watch process #277 - 'RIGHT TO PLACE A TEST' as the quintessential watch-point litmus test so as to highlight any narrative events which will then be added. These can either be primal events such as 'Rocket Man' epithets which then equates to #469 as Category of Understanding:

Thus with a further function() to compute the gematria and node[] values as an object {} array, one can then very efficiently with this publicly available FileSave() function enable a rewrite of the entire blob array as some 14299 object elements in totalling 4.6Mb to disk as being a prerequisite for our IDEAS meta-data descriptor exchange of notional personalistics. Morale (also known as esprit de corps) is the capacity of a group's members to maintain belief in an institution or goal, particularly in the face of opposition or hardship. Morale is often referenced by authority figures as a generic value judgment of the willpower, obedience, and self-discipline of a group tasked with performing duties assigned by a superior. According to Alexander H. Leighton, "morale is the capacity of a group of people to pull together persistently and consistently in pursuit of a common purpose". Morale is important in the military, because it improves unit cohesion. Without good morale, a force will be more likely to give up or surrender. Morale is usually assessed at a collective, rather than an individual level. In wartime, civilian morale is also important. Esprit de corps is considered to be an important part of a fighting unit.

I QUOTE: "In the third chapter of the "Analytic of Principles," on phenomena and noumena, Kant in Critique of Pure Reason (1781 and second edition 1787) emphasizes that because the categories must always be applied to data provided by sensibility in order to provide cognition, and because the data of sensibility are structured by the transcendentally ideal forms of intuition, the categories give us knowledge only of things as they appear with sensibility ("phenomena," literally "that which appears").

Although through pure understanding (nous in Greek) we may think of objects independently of their being given in sensibility, we can never cognize them as such non-sensible entities ("noumena," literally "that which is thought" as a subject of some 112 mentions). The meaning of Kant's use of the term "phenomena" is self-evident, but the meaning of "noumena" is not, since it literally means not "things as they are in dependently of appearing to us" but something more like "things as they are understood by pure thought." Yet Kant appears to deny that the human understanding can comprehend things in the latter way."

As an ex-policeman and owning an Intellectual Property as trinomial noumenon of substantiated YAHAD {#509} TORAH / CHRISTIAN religious belief of 72J BCE = 12 x 294 x 364 or Tropical Year as 293 x 365.2423208191126 days which is better cosmology knowledge than the Julian calendar of 46 BCE and only corrected by the Gregorian calendar in 1582 CE, and in having been the target of Roman Catholic persecution for some 20 years as a gay male, I most strongly object to your apology for fascism:

"Infinity itself is the actual Logos as concept. Both the 'logical' and the 'subjective' grounding of infinity—as we call them in short—are already carried out in the thoroughly concrete investigation ... [and found that] everything [was] still at the beginning and is more within the scope of a confrontation with tradition; it has not yet found its own necessary shape.

This happens for the first time in the 'System of Science' {ie. The science, whose system is at issue, is the totality of the highest and most essential knowledge as philosophy—The way in which philosophy unfolds itself as absolute knowledge. By providing all sciences with their foundation, philosophy must certainly be a science}, whose first part, the Phenomenology, represents the grounding we mentioned as our 2nd point (the grounding of infinity in the subject and as subject), while the second part, the Logic, implements the 1st grounding that we mentioned above (the logical grounding), which is inherently and necessarily grounded in the 2nd one. [Martin Heidegger (1889-1976 CE), ‘Mediatedness & the Dialectical Movement’ on ‘Hegel’s Phenomenology of Spirit’, p 78]

Have you sufficient intelligence to use a prophylaxis (ie. a condom) as I don't think that you are your smart enough to breed and I wouldn't want any child of mine to be so congenitally defective by such a self evident bestial abrogation of human intelligence?

My particular field of superannuated retirement interest is in the teleological area of Natural Theology and metempirical philosophy which is as celestial hierarchy and metaphysical noumenon and a theoretical behavioral 'a priori' which is equally applicable to the definition of force as it is in relation to the study of time and its relativity to infinity and to the temporal: "All things have their pre-existent limits in the Super-Essence, of the Universe and its Eternity.

That is, the Permanent Principle underlying its temporal process. This and the next phrase explain what is meant by the words 'the Measure of the universe.' The Good sets bounds to the world (1) temporally, because Eternity is the Fount of Time, (2) spatially, because Transcendent Unity is the Fount of Number. All temporal things are permanent in God; and all diversities are one in Him. Its Numerical Principle, all number has its roots in the Good."

I understand the Natural and Common Law theological conception, that when the Judaeo-Christian Scriptures discuss and denote eternity, it is the home of being, while time is the home of things that come to be.

And I can apply this understanding to an Anthropic Cosmological Principle associated to the Intellectual Consideration of the Letters Patent to the Commonwealth of Australia in differentiation of the natural law teleological issue of 1933 to 1945 as governance that is conveyed by its recourse to a 'formal definition of monogamous gamo-genesis' and piety 'monogenes' [John 1:17-18] and the philosophical paradigm which German Super-intellectualism regarded as: "All things are conceived as consisting of single monads of varying magnitudes of aggregations of these bodies, which may exist as physical, emotional, mental, or spiritual substances. God is the first and greatest Monad; the spirit of man is an awakened monad in contradistinction to the lower kingdoms whose governing monadic powers are in a semi-dormant state."

While the GRAPPLE HOMOIOTIC NOUMENON is the conceptual lens by which I view phenomenon, and the means I map instances of temporal
(time and date) events, then making neural linguistic associations to the memetic paradigm. It is not the basis, nor has ever been the basis for any claim by me that I am the cause or contribute in any way to the occurrence any such events as earthquakes, storms, accidents or a range of other phenomenon as acts of God.

The great thing about this Intellectual Property of MINE as a legal argument: (DIEU ET MON DROIT) is that this technology for "Judging, Weighing and Integrity of Words" is not only embedded within the Bible as Scriptures and given assent to through an oath, swearing by Almighty God, but is compatible with the regime of numbered and natural jurisprudence (ie. the Categories of Understanding as #729 appraisals within the GRAPPLE HOMOIOTIC NOUMENON as a theoretical and metaphysical conception of the Godhead/Divine Nature as Mind, in being a reasonable consideration, then ought to equate with the numbered paragraphs) as being a mandatory prerequisite for the presenting of any legal case before a court of law.

So there ought not to be then any instance of perverse Justice.

'For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints of the marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intentions of the intents of the heart' [Hebrews 4:12]

Making a reasonable supposition as a logical, probable and hypothetical proposition, which is then predicated upon by a determined course of affirmative action to inform oneself through inquisition as elimination—is the process of a rational mind practiced in acquiring knowledge and explicit specification within categories of understanding.

For example, if all but the first and last letters are scrambled and the sentence is entirely ambiguous, you can still disambiguate the word and fully comprehend the sentence, Cambridge University researchers suggest:

"Taht in my veiw, psciiouelnunsts is an insniirtc phteinoc conrecoednprse and fancounitl cvgiinote cartarseiichtc of mnid."

And in a similar manner, the mind's phonetic apprehension as the knowing of any word's entity is a priori and transitional towards it's

Confusion like fear and paranoia which steadfastly and habitually refuses to overcome its ignorant state by informing itself, can then be considered delusional.

6. (MARRIAGE?) BINDING NORM (NORMA OBLIGANS), AS SUBJECTIVE GROUNDING OF INFINITY / DO NOT BEAR FALSE WITNESS

As if it wasn't shameful enough that the Jewish people could not speak up about their own history and prior experience of annihilation by Roman {strength; power} military pogrom, to which such a fact was then associated by daily practice in the Jerusalem {vision of peace} (King Herod's) Temple:

"There was in the days of Herod {son of a hero}, the king of Judaea {the praise of the Lord; confession}, a certain priest named Zacharias {memory of the Lord}, of the course of ABIJAH {the Lord is my father}: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron {a teacher; lofty; mountain of strength}, and her name was Elisabeth {the oath, or fullness, of God}.

And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord:

That the nihilistic consequence as Jewish non-existence (which as a Christian you imply by the denial of such a cosmological fact to the contrary) would not have then been manifested as a holocaust of over 6 million people.

The greater shame is, that your continued denial of a such a cosmological fact, bestows upon you the consideration that Karl Barth's denials of FASCISM by the Barmen Declaration was correct but lacked the effectual means:

"In 1934, as the Protestant Church attempted to come to terms with the Third Reich, Barth was largely responsible for the writing of the Barmen declaration (Ger. Barmer Erklärung). This declaration rejected the influence of Nazism on German Christianity by arguing that the Church's allegiance to the God of Jesus Christ should give it the impetus and resources to resist the influence of other lords, such as the German Führer, Adolf Hitler. Barth mailed this declaration to Hitler personally. This was one of the founding documents of the Confessing Church and Barth was elected a member of its leadership council, the Bruderrat.

He was forced to resign from his professorship at the University of Bonn in 1935 for refusing to swear an oath to Hitler:

"For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus {savior; deliverer} Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him." [1 Corinthians 8:5-6 (KJV)]

Barth then returned to his native Switzerland, where he assumed a chair in systematic theology at the University of Basel. In the course of his appointment he was required to answer a routine question asked of all Swiss civil servants: whether he supported the national defense. His answer was, 'Yes, especially on the northern border!'

The newspaper Neue Zuercher Zeitung carried his 1936 criticism of Martin Heidegger for his support of the Nazis.

The religious belief system semantics (22/7) as Natural and Common Law right that is conveyed by this paradigm are sustained by Hebrew categories of understanding applied to Milesian ordinals: #250, #270, #335, #364. By that I mean there is a relationship between the base-7 chronology of the 364 day year expressed by 3W1D and the topical solar year convey by 6000 years = 122J3W1D.

Karl Barth's (1886-1968) inability to adequately answer the question, 'For how can the mystery of God be captured through the formulae of any humanly-conceived master plan?', caused him to problematized the "worldviews" associated to Natural Theology because he opposed turning any of them into a premature 'foundation' for thinking about the divine mystery.

The consideration is that the traditional philosophical and theological bias against women logically occurs and progressively against homosexuality, because of a difference in Orthodoxy's understanding of the Natural Moral Law from either the Jewish view or the Hymeneal (Gentile) view. And this pivot upon a failure to conceptualise and recognise a time associated behavioural 'a priori' as noumenon is perhaps the logical grounding of the people of religion's unreasoned failure in relation to:

a) Autonomy of the Will as the Supreme Principle of Morality
b) Heteronomy of the Will as the Source of All Spurious Principles of Morality: If the will seeks the law that is to determine it anywhere but in the fitness of its maxims for its own legislation of universal laws, and if it thus goes outside of itself and seeks this law in the character of any of its objects, then heteronomy always results.

As this is a chronological interpretation of the Natural and Common Law paradigm conveyed by the GRAPPLE HOMOIOTIC NOUMENON is an issue of transcendence that is at once concerned with an 'a priori' teleological argument of intelligent design associated with a Cosmological Anthropic Principle, I ought in the circumstance be free from hymeneal antagonism of HETEROS as philosophical HETERONYM and religious MYSTICISM through being subject to a law or standard external to itself as AUTONOMY—In Kantian moral philosophy, acting in accordance with one's desires rather than reason or moral duty; subject to different laws."

GREG SHERIDAN (THE AUSTRALIAN NEWSPAPER) @ 0000 HOURS ON 16 SEPTEMBER 2017: "TONY ABBOTT RAMPS UP SAME-SEX MARRIAGE WRANGLE:

Former prime minister Tony Abbott has escalated debate over religious freedom in the context of the same-sex marriage survey by calling for the abolition of the Human Rights Commission.

Mr Abbott's comments will intensify divisions within the Liberal Party over the issue in the wake of John Howard's intervention this week calling for greater protection for religious freedom and for this issue to be properly addressed before the period of the postal survey comes to an end.

Mr Abbott said had he been prime minister when the plebiscite was put, he intended to submit the final bill on same-sex marriage to a public vote.

That bill would be ultimately put to parliament if the plebiscite returned a Yes vote.

In an interview with The Weekend Australian, Mr Abbott said it would be extremely difficult to protect religious freedom if same-sex marriage were legalised, and called for the Human Rights Commission to be abolished
"Our sustained experience of human rights bureaucracies is that they do not protect human rights, they harm them,” Mr Abbott said.

He told The Weekend Australian that in the prevailing climate and culture, anti-discrimination law was used in a very one-sided and politicised way.

"The best thing you could do to protect religious freedom is to abolish the Human Rights Commission,” he said.

Asked whether the Liberal Party at the state level should take a similar approach to state-based anti-discrimination commissions and similar bodies, Mr Abbott said: "Decent liberal conservatives have to ask themselves: what useful purpose have any of these bodies ever served?"

Mr Abbott confirmed to The Weekend Australian that he had planned, after the election, to consult widely among proponents of same-sex marriage and encourage them to hammer out their preferred bill giving effect to the legalisation of same-sex marriage.

His intention would then have been to publish that bill as an exposure draft. After a suitable period, during which time the public would be able to get to know the detail of the legislation proposed, Mr Abbott would then have put to a plebiscite not a general proposition about supporting same-sex marriage but a specific question about whether people supported that particular piece of legislation.

Had it won majority support, that legislation would have been put to parliament and passed.

Had the plebiscite question failed to win majority support, the bill would not have been put to parliament.

Mr Abbott agrees with his fellow former prime minister Mr Howard that people had a right to know in advance the detail of what they were voting for." [Copyright The Australian]

PLACE HIGH GRADE MANUKA HONEY UPON THE BURNS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE: The issue applies equally to men within the circumstance where shaving the face may spread a wart virus.

It is possible to then utilise a double strength wart remover {ie. Duofilm Extra Strength Gel which treats plantar and common warts, corns and calluses} upon the face and then immediately apply the Manuka honey.

The result is in my limited and non medical opinion a means of effective treatment without scarring and scaring but do seek medical advice before taking any individual action.

WOUND & BURN DRESSING WITH LEPTOSPERMUM HONEY: MEDIHONEY ® Antimicrobial Active Manuka Honey dressings are a new and unique line of dressings. Active Manuka Honey (Leptospermum scoparium) has been shown to have powerful and long-lasting antimicrobial activity – similar to that of ionic silver – but without the associated toxicity of ionic silver. This makes for compelling topical antimicrobial alternatives, as clinicians currently face many questions when using ionic silver dressings - such as when to start and how long to use the dressings.

- As wound fluid enters the dressing, the honey is released while the dressing forms a gel
- Maintains effectiveness even in the presence of wound fluid, blood and tissue
- Easy to use with potential for extended wear times depending on exudate
- Promotes a moisture-balanced environment conducive to wound healing
- Can be used before, during, and after negative pressure applications
- Can be used as a cover dressing for skin grafts or substitutes
- Helps wounds that stalled progress toward healing
- High osmolarity cleanses and debrides
- Helps lower overall wound pH
- Non-toxic, natural, and safe

Since the dressings are strong antimicrobials, assist in debridement, and help manage moisture balance, MEDIHONEY ® dressings can be thought of as 'all-in-one' dressings for effective wound bed preparation. Additionally, since Active Leptospermum Honey is noted for its ability to be used in all phases of wound healing, placing these dressings as the cornerstones of a wound care formulary can take a great deal of the guess-work out of wound management.

PETER ALLEN (PARIS) / ROD ARDEHALI (DAILYMAIL.CO.UK) @ 0456 HOURS ON 18 SEPTEMBER 2017: "WOMAN ARRESTED AFTER 'SPRAYING FOUR AMERICANS TOURISTS WITH ACID' AT A MARSEILLE TRAIN STATION CAUSING BURNS TO THEIR FACES AND LEGS:

#2 - Four American tourists were sprayed with acid - two suffered burns to their faces
#3 - 41-year-old attacker used a cleaning substance containing hydrochloric acid
#4 - After carrying out the assault, the woman displayed photos of her own burns, allegedly picked up in an earlier incident
#5 - French prosecutors are not investigating the acid attack as an act of terror

A woman with 'deep psychological problems' was in custody in the French city of Marseille on Sunday after spraying four American tourists with acid and burning two in the face.

The horrifying attack took place shortly after 11am at the Gare de Marseille-Saint-Charles station, where the party from the US was preparing to board a train. French prosecutors are not investigating the acid attack as an act of terror.
Police said that the 41-year-old attacker did not appear to be mentally stable and witnesses said that she did not shout slogans or extremist sentiments during the attack.

The unnamed woman used a cleaning substance containing hydrochloric acid in the attack that she is thought to have picked up from a local DIY store.

After carrying out the assault, the woman displayed photos of her own burns, allegedly picked up in an earlier incident.

'Two American women aged 20 were hit in the face, while the other two were sprayed in the legs, and were mainly suffering from shock,' said a source close to the case.

'The two with facial injuries were taken to hospital, while the others were treated at the scene. They were also aged 20 or 21. The attacker wanted to show off photographs of her own injuries.

'She was arrested at the scene and faces charges. She displayed clear signs of suffering from deep psychological problems.'

Prosecutors have opened a criminal enquiry, while none of those involved have yet been named.

A spokeswoman for the prosecutor office said two of the tourists have been injured in the face and one of them has a possible eye injury.

She said all four of the tourists have been hospitalized, two of them for shock.

The Americans were thought to be on their way from the southern Mediterranean city to Paris.

Four emergency services vehicles arrived at the station, which was packed on a Sunday morning at the tail-end of the holiday season.

Paris remains under a State of Emergency following a string of terrorist attacks carried out by Islamic State and Al-Qaeda operatives over the past two years.

Security at transport hubs including rail stations has been massively stepped up because of threats by the groups to target them.

Corrosive substances are increasingly being used as weapons in Europe, including in Britain, where there were 450 such attacks in London alone in Acid-based products are easy to purchase, and can be paid for in cash, so there is no trace of who bought them."
